ADDISON CO.'S BIG EVENT.

Getting Ready for the Great Fair of the Champlain Valley at Middlebury.

Secretary Frank C. Dyer of the Addison County Fair association announces that the fair book for this season's event, which takes place at Middlebury, August 27, 28, 29 and 30, will come from the press this week and be given liberal distribution. Mr. Dyer states that there is every reason for making the prediction that the Addison county fair will be an event that will surpass former fairs at Middlebury in many if not all respects.

An especial effort has been made to make big showings of horses, cattle and sheep and many new exhibitors have already made entries. The trotting this year will be a big feature and the entries are coming in in large numbers.

Amusement features are receiving much attention. Already arrangements have been made with the Thor-Schmidt Aviation company of New York for daily flights. George Schmidt of this aviation company is a native of Rutland and an expert aviator. He makes the flights at this fair.

Hutton's hippodrome, carrying twelve distinct acts, will furnish the state acts and several track acts each afternoon of the fair. These acts include Roman chariot races and a complete new line of novel and interesting acts.

BUTTOLPH-MARTIN

Two of Middlebury's Prominent Young People United in Matrimony.

One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in this village occurred at the Congregational church, which was crowded with relatives and friends, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Mabel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Martin of this village, was united in marriage to John Lucius Buttolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwy Buttolph of this village. The bride was becomingly gowned in pearl white satin trimmed with princess lace and pearls. She wore a tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. The bride was attended by Miss Marguerite Lane of Cornwall as maid of honor, who wore a gown of pink crepe meteor and carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids were the Misses Grace and Caroline Buttolph, sisters of the groom, Miss Marguerite Martin, sister of the bride, and Miss Margaret Sheldon, who were gowned in pink satin, veiled with white crepe-de-chine and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas. The best man was Edwin S. S. Sunderland of New York city, a classmate of the groom. The ushers were Clifton and Egbert C. Hadley of this village, Harry Williams of Rutland, Vt., and Ralph Palmer of Bristol.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bride entered the church through the center aisle on the arm of her father, where she was met at the foot of the altar by the groom and best man. Rev. A. A. Lancaster, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. Mrs. G. D. Miner presided at the organ. The church was handsomely trimmed with ground pine, pink and white sweet peas. The young couple are among the most popular in town and have the best wishes of a host of friends for their well doing. The bride is a graduate of Middlebury college, class of 1911, and after graduation occupied a position on the teaching staff of the Middlebury High school the past year. The groom is a successful business man in Twin Falls, Idaho, being engaged in the shoe business in that city. After a short wedding trip the newly wedded couple will reside in Twin Falls. They were the recipients of many costly and handsome presents from their many friends. Owing to the illness of Mrs. E. H. Martin, mother of the bride, a reception was held at the Alpha Chi house after the wedding ceremony.

Excursion Through Lake Champlain.

JOHN H. CALHOUN DEAD.

Young Man Passes Away After a Week's Illness.

John H. Calhoun, aged 24 years, died at the home of his parents on South street in this village Monday morning, July 29, at 10:15 o'clock. Mr. Calhoun was the youngest son of Joseph W. and Letitia Calhoun and was born in Middlebury. His illness was of but a week's duration, the result of contracting a cold which developed into pneumonia. He was a graduate of the Middlebury High school of the class of 1907 and after his graduation went to Twin Falls, Idaho, where he remained several years, returning to Middlebury and taking up the occupation of plumbing in the establishment conducted by his father. Although a young man he rapidly fitted himself in that business and showed marked ability as a mechanic. Mr. Calhoun is survived by his parents and two brothers, James and Matthew of Boston, Mass., and two sisters, Mrs. M. R. Burt of Oswego, N. Y., and Isabelle of this village. The funeral, which was one of the largest ever held in this village, took place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Stephen's Episcopal church. The services were conducted by Rev. John Evans Bold, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. W. T. Forsythe of Richford, a former rector and long-time friend of the family of the deceased. A quartet composed of Mrs. H. L. Cushman, Miss Frances Piper, Rev. Mr. Bold and A. C. Woodward rendered several selections in a creditable manner. Otter Creek lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member, attended in a body and acted as escort for the funeral cortege. Although one of the youngest members he had his lodge at heart and always had a brotherly greeting for the members and his friends. The floral tribute was very large and magnificent and consisted of a number of set pieces from the Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows, the board of trustees and from his many friends and associates. The honorary bearers were Joseph, Walter, James and Philip Calhoun, cousins of the deceased. The pall bearers were John L. Slaughter, Charles R. Cheney, Ira Pond, Cassius Bailey, Frank Warren and Wright Caswell, all members of K. of P. The Pythian burial service was conducted at the grave. All the stores and business places were closed during the passage of the funeral procession. Among those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mrs. James Calhoun, Miss Isabelle Calhoun and Miss Ellen McKirdy, all of Nutley, N. J.
